On [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] met at the [redacted] to discuss confidential matters regarding [redacted] sightings.

According to the report, [redacted] mentioned that he saw an unidentified flying object while hiking near Area 51. He described it as "metallic, silent, and fast."

[redacted], [redacted] contacted [redacted] who is a known aerospace analyst based in [redacted]. [redacted] confirmed he had heard similar stories from military personnel stationed in [redacted].

[redacted] [redacted] traveled to [redacted], [redacted], where he submitted a report to [redacted].

Witnesses claim that [redacted] seemed nervous and repeatedly referred to “the project” without giving any further details.

Meanwhile, [redacted] contacted his colleague [redacted] to verify the trajectory data from the radar logs. She confirmed the [redacted] but refused to elaborate further.

The documents were then forwarded to [redacted], who was tasked with redacting any sensitive material before submission to [redacted] and Processing division.